Jennifer Hunter, PhD
Researcher at UC Berkeley

Skunks are common in California—most of us see (or smell) them often, but most know very little about these fascinating and underappreciated California carnivores. Skunks are among the most adaptable carnivores; they are found nearly everywhere, from wildlands to urban gardens. Join Jen Hunter as she shares her PhD research on skunks. She is an avid skunk enthusiast and promises that by the end of the night, you will have a new appreciation for our mysterious native skunks.
